

WOMEN OF THE FUTURE

AWARDS

SOUTHEAST ASIA

In association with

CELEBRATING AND SUPPORTING THE NEW GENERATION OF TRAILBLAZERS IN SOUTHEAST ASIA

We are delighted to have announced our fifth Women of the Future Awards Southeast Asia shortlist. The awards provide a platform to showcase regional emerging leaders – those who are not afraid to question stereotypes, break boundaries and drive positive change through courage, hard work and determination.

WOMEN OF THE FUTURE SHORTLIST 2022

“ We are delighted to present the Women of the Future Southeast Asia 2022 shortlist which includes phenomenally talented leaders from across the region. Every single one of our nominees has a story to tell and to inspire. These leaders may work across all sectors but they share a determination to effect positive change and the courage to challenge stereotypes, traditional hierarchies and boundaries at every step. I am totally in awe of our nominees and everything they have achieved and will go on to achieve for this generation and the next.

"These awards are important to me because Cambodia hasn't been able to participate in anything regional and there seems to be a feeling that we can't. This award means so much to me because it is a symbol; a symbol that as a country we can participate and be recognised in the region, and that people care what we think."

A LIFE CHANGING EXPERIENCE

Since its launch in 2006, the mission of the Women of the Future Awards has been to spotlight incredible female talent and to create a vibrant network of women who nurture, support and challenge each other in equal measure. This mission has strengthened and positively impacted female leadership pipeline all over the world. 2022 will mark the fifth Women of the Future Awards Southeast Asia and the search is now on for female leaders from the region across all professions or industries.

96% of shortlisted candidates felt that they had greater belief in their own strengths due to their involvement with the awards

96% of shortlisted candidates believed they gained new perspective through exposure to individuals from different countries AND different industries

88% of shortlisted candidates felt that the Awards gave them greater access to global networks

"Thank you so very much for the opportunity to meet all these wonderful nominees and winners. Women who do what they do often do so for others and not themselves. That is why it was wonderful paying homage to them to remind them of the incredible impact they are making on society."
